

Black Friday Brunch!

Friday, November 25th

9:00 AM to 12:00 PM

Are you planning to go shopping on Black Friday? How early will you be awake? Do you think you'll get hungry after a few hours of shopping?

Come join me for a Black Friday Brunch! Hit a few stores first thing in the morning, and then come by to have a bite to eat, and shop from your seat instead of your feet!

I'll be serving coffee, orange juice, Deep Covered Baker Breakfast Omelet and Baked French Toast with Strawberry Rhubarb Sauce. I may add to the menu closer to the date, but you'll have to come find out what it will be!

$ALE!

A dear friend of mine who recently battled breast cancer is looking to raise some funds to pay for Christmas, and is selling some new and nearly new Pampered Chef products at approximately 50% off retail. I will have her items available at the brunch, and you can see a full list on my Facebook Page:

www.Facebook.com/NoorasKitchen Some examples of items available are the Stainless Steel Mixing Bowls and The Ultimate Mandoline!

I will also have specials throughout the morning at different times. Check my Facebook Page for notices, or be surprised when you arrive!

All day, when your order is $60 or more, you can choose any Cookbook or our Bamboo Kitchen Towels as a FREE gift! When your order is $100 or more, you can choose from any Cookbook, our Bamboo Kitchen Towels, the Smooth-Edge Can Opener or the Easy Read Measuring cups!

I look forward to seeing you!
