That works. They're (Pineapple, Raspberry Habenero) also both great on ice cream. They are also good for dipping pretzels. – Rae, IN

I use them (Pineapple, Raspberry Habenero) to glaze grilled chicken and fish - As part of a baked brie - Slice the brie horizontally, pour on the pineapple rum sauce and some chopped macadamias, put the top half of the brie on, and back until melty. Use as dipping sauce for chicken tenders. At our house, the pineapple rum sauce is also often used as a dip for eggrolls, wontons, etc.. --Becky, MI

They're both awesome that way and delicious on everything we've tried. Those are my two favorites. They make a great sauce with chicken, pork, shrimp, ice cream, crackers, etc, etc... – Beth, NC
