

FREE COOKBOOK!

By hosting a Pampered Chef
Catalog Show

Only In November!

It's always an excellent time to host a Pampered Chef Catalog Show, but now it's even better! The holidays are just around the corner and people are out shopping for gifts, why not shop from you? The Pampered Chef catalog is full of quality Stocking Stuffers and Gifts. Everyone eats, so who wouldn't love to find a durable Silicone Scraper or sharp piece of German Forged Cutlery in their stocking ??

As a bonus for hosting a catalog show during the month of November, I'll give you a FREE Celebrate! Cookbook. This cookbook is no longer available through our catalog, only as a special gift to you. The Celebrate! Cookbook is in addition to the generous host program from The Pampered Chef!
