

Hello,

I want to say thank you for scheduling your show for November 24th. I also wanted to let you know that we are doing this show together and I want you to have a great time plus enjoy all your new products in the end. I work really hard to make sure my host and customers are happy with their Pampered Chef experience.

I wanted to remind you of the wonderful things that are ahead that will help you earn those FREE, half-price and discounted products.

1. When you hold your cooking show you earn FREE products, half price, host bonus and Host only discount. See show planner under Host Rewards chart for details.
2. We will choose your recipe together. You will then purchase the ingredients for the recipes we choose and have them ready for me when I arrive at the show. You will also need to have whatever you choose to serve for your guests to drink along with plates (paper for easy cleanup), forks or spoons, and napkins.

REMEMBER 40 PLUS INVITED = 15-20 WHO CAN ATTEND!! OVER INVITE!!

I'm looking forward to our show together and if you need extra catalogs, receipts, flyers, or just to ask questions please call or e-mail me any time. Thanks for keeping your show date. I usually do 8 shows a month to bring in family income. By keeping your date this let's me know that you respect my job and I really appreciate this dearly. If you need to reschedule please do so at least 4 weeks before so I have time to rebook the date.

Thank You,

Susie Gerrald
