

Christmas Left - Right Game

Twas the night before Christmas, and all was just RIGHT
Candles were twinkling, what a beautiful sight!

Friends were coming RIGHT over in a minute or two
I scurried about, there was much LEFT to do.

Now just as I thought I'd LEFT nothing undone,
Something wasn't RIGHT - How could I be so dumb?

To my RIGHT the Kahlua, the Baileys and Rum
The cream for the coffee - The food! - Yum yum!

What could it be that's not quite RIGHT?
I remembered the Rum - But had no coke for the night!

RIGHT at that moment, I dashed RIGHT out the door
Jumped RIGHT in the car - as my RIGHT food hit the floor!

I backed RIGHT out the drive and turned LEFT down the lane
Was I in my RIGHT mind, or was I insane?

Was there enough time LEFT to get it all done?
Was this the RIGHT way to get coke for the rum?

I hoped and I prayed that I was heading the RIGHT way
I turned RIGHT and wondered - Are any stores LEFT open today?

I made the RIGHT turn to Shopping Mall way
Pulled RIGHT up to the store - It was open! Hurray!!

I LEFT the car running as I ran RIGHT into the store
Finding the soda, by my LEFT on the floor.

I paid for the soda with just the RIGHT cash
I ran out the store in a sprinters dash.

RIGHT in the parking lot awaited my car
I opened the LEFT door, which was already ajar.

Not much LEFT to do except go Right back in a rush
My Right hand turned the mirror - My hair needed a brush.

My mouth fell RIGHT open as I pulled up the drive
Oh my goodness, the guests have arrived!

I LEFT the car and dashed RIGHT to my room
Threw on my party dress and LEFT with a zoom.

Went RIGHT to the kitchen to set out the Coke
Checked on the munchies I was serving the folks.

Well all turned out fine and the food was just RIGHT,
Nothing was LEFT over, not even a bite.

So RIGHT now I have just one thing LEFT to cheer
Have a Very Merry Christmas and a RIGHT Happy New Year!
