January News-Special Edition!

Discover the Chef in You!

I am ready to say goodbye to a brisk winter and welcome a bright and lively spring, more now than ever.

Why am I so excited for spring to come? Because once again Pampered Chef has amazed me and I know it will you too!

This special edition newsletter will have you smiling all the way through as you read about over 40 new products being added to the catalog beginning in March. Learn of the newly released host and guest specials for March and April; they are sure to please.

Thought about doing what I do? This is a great time to get started. The incentives to become a consultant are better than ever.

After twenty five years the Pampered Chef is so much more than the Kitchen Store That Comes to Your Door. We are a valuable resource. We teach people how to achieve more in the kitchen and perhaps even in their lives. So we're excited to announce our new tag line, discover the chef in you.

I just couldn't wait until February to fill you in on what's new and exciting with the Pampered Chef. You just had to be one of the first to know.

Start Your Business with FREE Cookware!

Who doesn't like the sound of that? Start your business between January 1 and February 28 and you can receive our new Pampered Chef Executive Skillet.

This is in addition to the $1400 worth of products you can earn during your first three super starter months.

Plus you can earn even more cookware right away with your cookware sales from February 1 - May 31.

Discover the rewards and discover the chef in you!

Without YOU I'd Have NO Business
in the Kitchen!

Say "I do..."

To The Pampered Chef Wedding Registry! Beginning March 1, couples who register with The Pampered Chef can receive up to $200 worth of free products, plus half-price and discounted products based on the dollar amount of items purchased from their registry. They'll also receive a 10% discount for one full year.

Couples interested in registering can access the registry from MY website. There they will find a link that takes them to our Wedding Registry page. Once registered, the couple will receive a welcome packet containing a cover letter that thanks the couple for registering and explains how and when Registry Rewards can be redeemed, catalog, and a pack of 30 registry cards that can be included in wedding show invitations.

Pampered Bride Shows also have a new name—The Pampered Chef Wedding Shower. We've added a new planner and updated some other materials. Our wedding planner contains all the details of hosting a successful Wedding Shower. The invitations have a fresh look, yet still contain a blank recipe card for guests to fill out. The unisex apron has our logo on it and can be signed by guests with our fabric markets as a memento for the happy couple.
