How to Share Choice Rewards

As you look through our exciting rewards, surely many items catch your eye. Can you imagine having that KitchenAid® Mixer on your countertop when the holidays roll in? How much easier holiday baking would be! Or how about the DVD recorder? You won't miss your favorite television shows anymore. Whatever your choice, the rewards are great — for you and your new recruits!

Why?

Not only will you build your business, you'll choose your own reward. Whether it's a present for yourself, something to share with your family or a gift for someone special, you have so much to choose from. Plus, it just feels right to offer the brand-new Roasting Pan with Rack and a rewarding new business to others!

Who?

Never dismiss anyone as a potential recruit! From doctors to grocery store clerks, there are countless people who may be interested in our opportunity, especially when they can receive our new Roasting Pan with Rack free. Share the opportunity and let them decide. Here are some ideas of people to ask:

- Those who have purchased our cookware.
- Newlyweds.
- Someone looking to make extra money for the holidays.
- Those with kids going back to school.
- College-bound students.
- Someone looking to have fun and make some money along the way.

How?

Make copies of the flyer and share the offer with everyone on your list. Talk about it freely at your Kitchen Shows, and promote the kit credit option to your July and August hosts — an exciting new business for even less money is quite a temptation! You already know they love our products. Perhaps they've even thought about having their own Pampered Chef® businesses. And never be reluctant to ask for referrals.

July is an especially great time to share our opportunity, because National Conference attendees can receive double recruiting points this month. Reach your reward faster in July!

Now what?

Once your new recruits sign, set them up for success. Help them schedule their first Shows as soon as possible. The sooner they hold Shows, the sooner they see the rewards of their commission checks. Continue to coach them to success just like you do your hosts. New Kitchen Consultants need your help and guidance to make a fast and strong start!
