The Pampered Chef® Cooking Club

I know you love Pampered Chef as you are some of my favorite hosts and customers. I am so excited to offer you this opportunity to get into the “club”.

I’m looking for 10 people to join me for a monthly Pampered Chef Cooking Club. We will get together once a month to make 2 recipes that you take home. These recipes will be seasonal and taste great frozen and reheated. We will meet on the _____ of each month at (time) at my house, _____.

Each month you order a minimum of $25 in product. Over the year I’ll rotate the host benefits so that everyone will have a chance to host a show just by showing up and buying your favorite products. In addition, food costs will be between $15-25 depending on the recipes we choose. At our kick-off show we will cook _____ & _____ and the food cost will be $_____. At that show, and all following shows, we will pick the 2 recipes for the next month. A week before each show I’ll let you know what the food costs are for the recipes we selected.

I’ll also be booking each show off of the previous so you will have an opportunity to buy host specials two months in a row and remember you get 10% off of all your orders for 12 months following your Host party.

In March and September The Pampered Chef® releases their new products and I’ll do a “mystery host” for those shows. At the show I’ll:

- Teach you two seasonal recipes,
- Tell you about our new products,
- Give everyone new catalogs and order forms, and
- Pick our “mystery host” of the month.

At the beginning of each show I’ll pass out what you bought from the previous show so we can all ooh and ahhh over our new kitchen “toys”.

Just think, you create a wish list and each month you buy one item off the list, and on the months you are host you can get even more of your wish list items. This is also a great way to get your favorite pantry items every month so you never run out.

Pick the “I want to be surprised option”

Create a wish list of $250-300 of product, give me your credit card information, and I’ll surprise you each month with an item from your wish list. I’ll even gift wrap it so it will feel like you are getting a gift every month! I can share your wish list with your spouse and on your birthday/anniversary months maybe you will get surprised with several “gifts”! Don’t forget on the wish list to include your spouses contact information and your birthday and anniversary dates.

What are you waiting for?

Contact me now to become part of the club.
