

Mystery Host Pampered Chef Show

I am asking 10 of my previous host/ hostesses to take up $100 + in outside orders to make a show anyone would die for. This is what we call a $100 show. The first 10 people to contact me with their spot reserved will each collect $100 in orders. Once all the orders are received, I draw one name to receive the $200+ in free product credit. I will then draw 2 more names and they will each be given the opportunity to purchase 2 items each at 50% off. One name will be drawn and given the chance to purchase the  monthly host special. The remaining 6 people will not be left out. They will all receive a special gift from me valued at least $20+.

If you are interested..Call or email me to reserve your spot and get your packets. Requests must be made by January 8, 2007.
